> No promise of wealth. No probing of family finances. No partisan content.

Status. Effective 2026-04-25. Version 1.0. Owner. FlexLifeFi (the "Licensor"), publisher of Cash to Company. Document type. Plain-language license and terms of use, intended for review by school counsel, district legal, state-DOE counsel, parochial/independent-school heads, charter authorizers, homeschool co-op leads, and after-school program directors. This document is the operating framework. License-type assignment, term length, and any commercial considerations are negotiated separately with the Licensor and confirmed in a signed Order Form.

> One sentence summary. You may use Cash to Company in classrooms, homeschools, learning pods, microschools, libraries, and after-school programs serving K-12 students; you must keep the Cash mascot, the canonical phrases, and the Sensitivity Policy intact; you may not sponsor, advertise to, or commercially monetize students through it.

1. Definitions

- "Curriculum" means the Cash to Company K-12 entrepreneurship and financial-literacy program, including the Cash mascot, the 104 videos, the per-grade documents, the Capstone artifacts and rubrics, the Standards Alignment Map, the Cash Certified Teacher professional development, and the brand voice guides.
- "Cash" means the gender-neutral animated coin character, the visual identity, the canonical phrases, and the voice rules collectively constituting the Cash mascot system.
- "Licensee" means the school, district, state DOE, parochial or independent school, charter, homeschool co-op, learning pod, microschool, public library, after-school provider, or other education entity executing an Order Form with the Licensor.
- "Permitted Setting" means a classroom, a homeschool environment, a learning pod or microschool, a public-library teen or family program, an after-school program, or another supervised K-12 education setting under Licensee's direct control.
- "Student" means any K-12 learner participating in the Curriculum.
- "Family" means a Student's parent, guardian, or caregiver.
- "Educator" means a classroom teacher, homeschool parent-teacher, co-op lead, librarian, OST staff member, or volunteer running the Curriculum in a Permitted Setting.
- "Sensitivity Policy" means the Cash to Company published policy forbidding family-money probing, guaranteed-outcome claims, partisan content, and the 15 banned phrases enumerated in the Master Brand Voice Guide.
- "Order Form" means the executed agreement between Licensor and Licensee specifying license type, term, scope, and any agreed terms not enumerated in this document.

2. Permitted uses

A Licensee in good standing under a current Order Form may:

- (a) Use the Curriculum in classrooms — public, charter, parochial, and independent K-12 school classrooms within the Licensee's footprint.
- (b) Use the Curriculum in homeschool environments — homeschool families operating under the Licensee's umbrella, co-op, or pod.
- (c) Use the Curriculum in microschools and learning pods — small-group K-12 settings under the Licensee's direct control.
- (d) Use the Curriculum in public-library teen and family programs — library-mediated K-12 programming.
- (e) Use the Curriculum in after-school and out-of-school-time programs — YMCA, Boys & Girls Clubs, 4-H clubs, after-school networks, summer camps, and other supervised OST settings.
- (f) Print, copy, and distribute the Curriculum's printable PDFs to Educators, Students, and Families within the Licensee's footprint.
- (g) Stream and project the Curriculum's videos in Permitted Settings.
- (h) Display Cash mascot imagery and canonical phrases on classroom walls, family-facing newsletters, internal Educator training, and Capstone showcase events.
- (i) Translate Educator-facing scripts and Family-facing letters into languages required for the Licensee's community, subject to Section 5 (Translation rights).
- (j) Adapt Educator-facing pacing, scaffolds, and accommodations for IEP/504, ELL, advanced learners, and multi-age settings, subject to Section 6 (Modification rights).

3. Attribution requirements

A Licensee using the Curriculum must:

- (a) Maintain the Cash to Company logo lockup and the "a FlexLifeFi K-12 program" mark on materials distributed to Families and on Capstone showcase event programs.
- (b) Cite Cash to Company by name in any public-facing description of the Licensee's instructional program (district scope-and-sequence, state-DOE adoption listings, charter authorizer reports, accreditation documentation, OST funder reports).
- (c) Preserve the canonical phrases ("which people, and how do you know?"; "being wrong is the deal"; "revenue is loud, contribution margin is true"; "honest claims build customers who come back"; "listening is not a moment, it's a system"; "a little less wrong, every week"; "don't sell, show") in their original wording when used in materials presented to Students or Families.
- (d) Maintain the Cash mascot's visual integrity per the Cash Mascot Style Guide (Section 7 below).

- (e) Credit translators and Educator-contributors in the form Licensor provides — typically a footer line on translated or adapted materials.

4. Translation rights

- (a) Existing translations. Licensee may use the Mexico Spanish and Latin Spanish translations published by Licensor without additional approval, subject to attribution.
- (b) New translations of Educator-facing scripts. Licensee may translate Educator scripts and Family letters into languages required for the Licensee's community (e.g., simplified Mandarin, Vietnamese, Haitian Creole, Somali, Arabic, Navajo, ASL gloss). Licensee must: 1. Submit the translation to Licensor for voice review before classroom use, with reasonable turnaround commitment from Licensor. 2. Preserve the canonical phrases (Section 3c) in their meaning, even if literal translation requires localization. 3. Identify the translator in the credit footer.
- (c) New translations of student-facing video voiceover. Voiceover translation requires Licensor approval and a separate addendum to the Order Form, because the Cash voice rules govern what the mascot may and may not say in any language.
- (d) Reverse rights. Translations Licensee creates and submits become part of the Cash to Company translation library; Licensor may make those translations available to other Licensees serving the same language community, with credit to the original Licensee and translator.

5. Modification rights — what Educators may and may not change

EDUCATORS MAY ADAPT:

- (a) Pacing. Stretch a unit across more weeks or compress for an intensive format.
- (b) Scaffolds. Add visual supports, sentence stems, multi-language glossaries, manipulatives, or alternative response formats for IEP/504, ELL, or advanced learners.
- (c) Capstone artifact format. Substitute equivalent artifacts (e.g., voice memo for written reflection) for accessibility reasons.
- (d) Local context references. Replace generic examples with locally relevant ones (a New Mexico classroom may use chile pricing instead of lemonade pricing in Grade 5; a coastal classroom may use shell-craft instead of paper crafts in Grade 1).
- (e) Capstone showcase format. Configure Market Day, Pitch Night, Sprint Showcase, or Defense Day to fit the Licensee's calendar.

EDUCATORS MAY NOT:

- (a) Strip or replace the Cash mascot — Cash is the K-12 continuity spine and may not be removed from materials, replaced with a Licensee mascot, or rebranded.
- (b) Rebrand the Curriculum under a Licensee-only name (e.g., "Lincoln District Money Program powered by Cash to Company" is not a permitted naming convention).

- (c) Alter the canonical phrases or invent new ones attributed to Cash.
- (d) Override the Sensitivity Policy — no family-money probing, no guaranteed-outcome claims, no political content, no use of the 15 banned phrases.
- (e) Add hustle-coded framing, wealth-promise framing, or guaranteed-outcome framing to materials, even if locally requested by a stakeholder.
- (f) Add sponsor placement, brand placement, or advertising to materials presented to Students.
- (g) Modify the Cash voice — Cash's voice rules are locked in the Cash Mascot Style Guide; Educator adaptations may not alter Cash's spoken or written voice.

6. Re-distribution rules

- (a) Within the Licensee footprint. Licensee may freely distribute Curriculum materials to Educators, Students, and Families within the Licensee's footprint as defined in the Order Form.
- (b) Outside the Licensee footprint. Re-distribution to schools, districts, families, or programs outside the Licensee's footprint is not permitted without Licensor approval. Licensee may refer outside parties to Licensor for their own license conversation.
- (c) Public posting. Licensee may not post the full video library, the printable PDFs in bulk, or the Cash Certified Teacher PD modules to a public website. Public-facing promotional use of one canonical phrase, one quote, or one event-recap photo is welcome with attribution.
- (d) Conferences and PD events. Licensee Educators may present Cash-using practice at conferences (CUE, ISTE, NCTM, NAFEPA, AASA, NCSS, AHA, NSEE, state-OST conferences, library-association conferences, 4-H congresses) with attribution and a link to Licensor; no full-curriculum redistribution at such events.

7. Commercial-use restrictions

- (a) No re-sale. Licensee may not re-sell, sub-license, or charge a separate fee to families for access to Curriculum materials beyond what is included in the Licensee's normal program enrollment.
- (b) No bundling with paid third-party products. Licensee may not bundle Curriculum materials inside a Licensee or third-party product offered for sale, without Licensor approval.
- (c) Capstone-driven student ventures. Students running real ventures as part of Grade 11-12 Capstone work may earn revenue from those ventures; this is curriculum content, not commercial use of the Curriculum itself, and is supported.
- (d) Educator merchandise. Licensor may make Cash-themed Educator merchandise (Phrase Inventory tee, Capstone Pin, plush, sticker pack) available; Licensee may not produce competing merchandise using the Cash mascot or canonical phrases.

8. Privacy — COPPA and FERPA compliance posture

- (a) No student data collection by the Curriculum. The Curriculum, in its delivered form, does not collect student data. There is no student login, no student account, no analytics tracker on student-facing materials, no ad tracker, no third-party SDK in student-facing video. The Curriculum is operationally simple by design: printable PDFs, video files, and Educator-facing PD.
- (b) COPPA. Because the Curriculum does not collect personal information from children under 13, COPPA's notice-and-consent requirements are not triggered by the Curriculum's design. Licensee remains responsible for any student data Licensee collects in its own delivery context (LMS attendance, gradebook entries, photo permissions for Capstone showcase events).
- (c) FERPA. Student artifacts produced through Capstone work — ledgers, plans, Business Model Canvases, Launch-or-Learn memos — are educational records under FERPA when held by Licensee. Licensee retains custody and FERPA obligations for those records. Licensor does not receive Student artifacts unless Licensee voluntarily submits them as part of an opt-in pilot evidence study or Capstone showcase highlight (with all required Family permissions).
- (d) Pilot evidence study. The Fall 2026 pilot evidence study (N=300, Jump$tart pre/post) operates under a separate research protocol with explicit parent and district consent, IRB review where applicable, and de-identified data handling. Participation is opt-in and does not affect any other Licensee.
- (e) Photo and image release. Capstone showcase photos, video, or recordings shared with Licensor for marketing, press, or pilot-evidence use require Family-signed image release per Licensor template.
- (f) Data residency. Because the Curriculum does not collect student data, no student data residency commitments are necessary for the Curriculum itself. Licensee handles its own data residency obligations under applicable state and national law.

9. Sponsor and advertising restrictions

- (a) No third-party sponsor placement in materials presented to Students. Banks, insurance companies, fintech apps, brokerages, financial-services brands, and other commercial entities may not be inserted into Cash materials shown to Students.
- (b) No advertising to Students. Cash to Company is not an advertising vehicle. No commercial product placement, no co-branded student-facing materials, no sponsor logos on student-facing surfaces.
- (c) Educator-facing partnership materials. Educator-facing professional development may name partner organizations (e.g., a state-DOE partnership, a Y-USA partnership, an NGPF cross-reference), provided the partnership is named accurately and does not direct Students to a commercial product.
- (d) Curriculum content describing real-world tools. Curriculum content that names external tools (LibreOffice, Google Sheets, Trello, Y Combinator Startup School, etc.) uses a date-stamped citation and accurate license-type description; this is curriculum, not sponsorship, and is permitted.

10. Trademarks

- (a) Owned marks. "Cash," "Cash to Company," "FlexLifeFi," "Cash Certified Teacher," "Capstone Pin," and the Cash visual mark are trademarks of FlexLifeFi.
- (b) Permitted use. Licensee may use the marks for the purposes described in this License (attribution, classroom display, Family-facing materials, Capstone showcase events, internal PD).
- (c) Prohibited use. Licensee may not use the marks (i) on competing curriculum or merchandise, (ii) in a manner that suggests Licensor endorsement of unrelated Licensee programs, (iii) in a manner that disparages Licensor or other Licensees, or (iv) on hustle-coded, wealth-promise, or guaranteed-outcome marketing.
- (d) Style guide. The Cash Mascot Style Guide and Master Brand Voice Guide govern visual and verbal use of the marks.

11. Term, termination, and version control

- (a) Term. The license term is set in the executed Order Form.
- (b) Renewal. Renewal terms are negotiated before expiration and reflected in an updated Order Form.
- (c) Termination by Licensee. Licensee may terminate the license on the cycle specified in the Order Form, typically end of academic year, by written notice to Licensor.
- (d) Termination by Licensor for cause. Licensor may terminate the license for material breach (sponsor placement, Sensitivity Policy violation, mascot rebranding, public re-distribution of bulk materials) after a written notice and a 30-day cure period.
- (e) Effect of termination. On termination, Licensee will (i) cease distribution of new Cash materials, (ii) remove Cash mascot and trademarks from Licensee public-facing materials within 60 days, and (iii) retain existing Capstone artifacts produced by Students during the license term as Licensee's educational records.
- (f) Version control. Licensor publishes versioned releases (v1.0, v1.1, etc.) and a changelog. Licensee receives the current version and any minor updates during the license term. Major-version transitions are noted in the Order Form.
- (g) Deprecation notices. Where Licensor retires a unit or replaces it with a newer version, Licensee receives at least 6 months' notice.

12. Disclaimers

- (a) Educational, not financial advice. Cash to Company is a K-12 entrepreneurship and financial-literacy curriculum. It is not financial, legal, tax, investment, or fiduciary advice. Materials describing money, credit, banking, business operations, or markets are pedagogical and age-appropriate. Students, Families, and Educators should consult qualified professionals for personal financial decisions.
- (b) No guaranteed outcomes. Licensor makes no claim that any Student using Cash to Company will become wealthy, become an entrepreneur, succeed in a future business, or achieve any specific financial outcome. The Curriculum's promise is clarity of thinking about money — not a promise of wealth.
- (c) Pilot evidence pending. The Fall 2026 pilot evidence study is forthcoming. Outcome claims based on completed evidence will be made when evidence is published.
- (d) Standards alignment good faith. The Standards Alignment Map reflects Licensor's good-faith mapping of the Curriculum to Jump$tart, CEE, CCSS, C3, CASEL, and NGSS-ETS. Licensee is responsible for confirming alignment with state-specific frameworks where required.
- (e) Sensitivity Policy as a floor, not a ceiling. The Sensitivity Policy is a minimum standard. Licensee may impose additional protections specific to its community.

13. License types — overview

The Curriculum is offered under license types appropriate to the Licensee's setting. License-type assignment is made in the Order Form. The categories below describe scope; commercial considerations are deferred to a separate conversation between Licensor and Licensee.

- District License — public or charter K-12 district; multi-school, multi-grade footprint; state-DOE listing optional add-on.
- State License — state department of education; statewide adoption listing; multi-district footprint.
- Independent / Parochial / Charter School License — single-school or small-network footprint; head-of-school sponsored.
- Homeschool Co-op / Pod / Microschool License — small-group footprint; co-op-lead sponsored.
- Public Library / 4-H / OST Provider License — out-of-school-time footprint; site-coordinator sponsored.
- Pilot License — short-term pilot footprint, typically one semester, before full Order Form negotiation.

The specific license-type assignment, term, scope, renewal cycle, and any commercial considerations are confirmed in the Order Form. This License document is the operating framework; pricing and commercial questions are a separate, named conversation Licensor will lead with Licensee at Order Form time.

14. Governing law and dispute resolution

- (a) Governing law. This License is governed by the law of the State of FlexLifeFi's principal place of business, except where a Licensee's state law (state DOE, state-OST regulator, charter authorizer) requires a specific governing-law clause; in such cases the Order Form may name that law.
- (b) Dispute resolution. Licensor and Licensee will first attempt good-faith negotiation. If unresolved within 60 days, the parties may proceed to mediation under the rules of a mutually agreed mediator before litigation.
- (c) Equitable relief. Sections governing trademark misuse, sponsor placement, Cash mascot integrity, and Sensitivity Policy violations carry a presumption that monetary damages are insufficient; Licensor may seek injunctive relief.
- (d) No waiver. A delay or failure by Licensor to enforce any provision is not a waiver of that provision.

15. Notices

Notices to Licensor will be sent to FlexLifeFi at the address and contact path provided in the Order Form. Notices to Licensee will be sent to the contact path provided by Licensee in the Order Form.

16. Entire agreement

This License together with the executed Order Form and the referenced companion documents (Master Brand Voice Guide, Master Marketing Playbook, Cash Mascot Style Guide, Sensitivity Policy, Standards Alignment Map) constitute the entire agreement between the parties on the subjects covered.

— Cash to Company is a K-12 entrepreneurship and financial-literacy program. Cash, our animated host, asks one question for thirteen years: which people, and how do you know? We never promise wealth, never ask about family money, and never sell to kids. — FlexLifeFi.

One promise.

No promise of wealth. No probing of family finances. No partisan content.

Cash to Company is built so a curriculum coordinator, a foundation officer, a parent, or a teacher can pick up any one of these references and meet the program at full strength on the first page.

No promise of wealth. No probing of family finances. No partisan content. One question, asked patiently for thirteen years: which people, and how do you know?

For educational and operational use. This document is informational and does not constitute financial, legal, or tax advice. Standards alignment is cited per the Cash to Company Standards Alignment Map (Jump$tart, CEE, CCSS, C3, CASEL, NGSS-ETS).
