"Wait For It" (Cash + Penny + Buck)

"You picked this idea. How do you know somebody actually wants it?"

- CASH, GRADE 3

Tract: Money Smarts (ML) Episode: EP11 of 12 Audience: Ages 6–10 (CashQuest Kids primary band) Runtime target: 2:50 (370–415 spoken words) Voice band: K-2 / 3-5 hybrid — short sentences, concrete, never moralizing Strand mapping: MFL + ESL + OSO (Order, Sequence, Operations) Cash voice: Bill — ElevenLabs `pqHfZKP75CvOlQylNhV4`

[VISUAL: A cookie sits on a plate on a table. A small kid stares at it. A timer ticks: 0:10. Cash drops into frame, lands next to the cookie, taps the timer.]

[SFX: Soft tick-tick-tick.]

CASH: Notice with me. One cookie now. Or two cookies in ten minutes.

[VISUAL: A "1" cookie on the left side. A "2" cookies on the right side. A small clock between them.]

CASH: Same kid. Same day. Two choices.

[VISUAL: Cash holds up the notebook. Title appears: "WAIT FOR IT."]

CASH: Today's word is patience. That means: waiting on purpose.

[VISUAL: Penny pops in holding her three jars from EP05 — SAVE, SPEND, SHARE.]

PENNY: I waited for a paint set! It took six weeks!

CASH: Six weeks. Tell us.

[VISUAL: A six-square calendar slides on. Penny's SAVE jar gets one coin per square.]

PENNY: Every week, one coin. Six coins. The paint set was twelve dollars.

[VISUAL: A tiny yellow paint set lands on the table. Penny grins.]

CASH: She picked the paint set. She picked the wait.

[VISUAL: Buck zooms in, also holding a snack-sized bag of chips.]

BUCK: Cash. I waited too. Sort of. Maybe.

[VISUAL: Buck shows a planner. The same plan: "WAIT TWO DAYS FOR THE BIG SLIME KIT — $7." On day one, a sad face. Day two, a proud face.]

CASH: Two days. That counts.

BUCK: It was hard. The first day was the longest day in human history.

[VISUAL: Cash laughs.]

CASH: Day one is always the longest. That is the deal.

[VISUAL: A simple chart appears: NOW vs. LATER. A tiny arrow points from NOW to LATER. The word PATIENCE glows in the middle.]

CASH: Patience is a money superpower. Wait a little. Get more.

[VISUAL: The cookie example from the start replays. The kid waits. The timer hits 0:00. Two cookies appear.]

CASH: Same with money. Wait one week. Save more. Buy the bigger thing later.

[VISUAL: Cash leans in, gentle.]

CASH: Big rule. Patience is not punishment.

[VISUAL: A small heart appears near the word PATIENCE.]

CASH: It does not mean you never get treats. It means: you pick the wait when the wait is worth it.

[VISUAL: A new chart. Three boxes: SMALL NOW (one sticker — $1). MEDIUM SOON (one sticker pack — $4 in two weeks). BIG LATER (a sticker book — $10 in a month).]

CASH: Small. Medium. Big. You pick.

[VISUAL: Penny picks the medium. Buck picks the small. Cash nods at both.]

CASH: Both okay. Patience is your call.

[VISUAL: A timer sets to 7 days. A tiny saving plan: "$1 a day, 7 days = $7."]

CASH: Try a tiny wait first. Seven days. One dollar a day, pretend.

[VISUAL: A row of 7 boxes. One pretend coin lands in each, one at a time.]

CASH: Cross off a box every day. Seven boxes. Seven days.

[VISUAL: The boxes fill up. The slime kit appears at the end.]

CASH: A wait you can see is a wait you can finish.

[VISUAL: Cash points at the camera, friendly.]

CASH: Future-you will say thank you.

[VISUAL: A poster appears: "MY ONE-WEEK WAIT — Day 1, 2, 3, 4, 5, 6, 7. The thing I'm waiting for: ____."]

CTA: CASH: Try this today. Pick one small thing to wait one week for. Draw seven boxes. Cross off one a day. Tell a grown-up at the end. Three. Two. One. Go.

[VISUAL: Cash waves. The seven boxes flash once. The cookie reappears, multiplied. Fade.]

[SFX: Soft warm chord + tiny "ding."]
