CASH CERTIFIED TEACHER PD

Format: asynchronous · self-paced · certificate-bearing Total time on task: ~2 hours (six 20-minute modules + 25-question certification quiz) Audience: K-12 classroom teachers, instructional coaches, homeschool leads, after-school facilitators, and curriculum coordinators preparing to teach Cash to Company. Prerequisite: none. The PD assumes a working classroom teacher; it does not assume prior entrepreneurship instruction. Status: v1.0 — locked 2026-04-25.

What this PD is

Cash Certified Teacher PD is a 2-hour asynchronous course that prepares a teacher to run any grade band of Cash to Company without further training. It teaches the program's pedagogy spine, Cash's voice rules, the four pedagogy moves that hold every lesson together, the sensitivity protocols that protect every classroom this lands in, and the Capstone Defense calibration that keeps grading fair across teachers, schools, and bands. The PD is not an entrepreneurship masterclass. It is a teaching-of-Cash-to-Company course. The substance the kids learn — customer interviews, contribution margins, premortems, unit economics — is in the curriculum books. The PD teaches you how to teach that content in the program's voice and to the program's standard.

What this PD is NOT

- It is not a financial-literacy refresher. We assume you can teach the math when the curriculum book lays it out.
- It is not a business-strategy course. We are not training entrepreneurs; we are training teachers of an entrepreneurship-and-financial-literacy curriculum.
- It is not a one-and-done license. The certificate is renewable annually; the program ships voice-and-sensitivity updates each summer and asks certified teachers to read a 20-minute change log.
- It is not a substitute for grade-specific reading. Before you teach Grade 7, you still read the Grade 7 Curriculum Book, Lesson Plans, Teacher Guide, and Cash Video Scripts.

Target outcomes

A Cash Certified Teacher can:

1. Explain in two sentences what Cash to Company is, what Cash is, and the spine question Cash asks for thirteen years.
2. Apply the four pedagogy moves — concrete-before-abstract, evidence-not-assumptions, measurable strand outcomes, capstone arc — to any Cash to Company lesson.
3. Speak in the correct band-locked Cash voice (or coach a student into it) without slipping into hype, flattery, or moralizing.

CASH CERTIFIED TEACHER PD

4. Identify and avoid the fifteen phrases Cash never says, and the cost-positioning language the brand never uses.
5. Run a Common Misconceptions table — surfacing wrong student beliefs and correcting them with evidence rather than disapproval.
6. Differentiate any Cash lesson for English Language Learners (ELL), students with IEPs/504 plans, and advanced students — using the program's named scaffolds, not improvised ones.
7. Score a Capstone Checkpoint and a Final Capstone Defense to within one rubric step of a calibrated peer.
8. Lead a Family Visit Day or community judging panel without violating the family-money sensitivity rule.

Target audience and prerequisites

This PD is built for working teachers — including specialists, generalists, multi-grade classroom leads, and homeschool parents. There is no required pre-reading; the PD links to and quotes the master files when it needs a quotation. A teacher who completes the PD has read the substance of the Mascot Style Guide, the Brand Voice Guide, the Implementation Guide, the Rubric Bank, and the Capstone Progression — not by reading them cover-to-cover but by working the activities that test their working knowledge.

Time commitment, defended

Six 20-minute modules + a 25-item quiz that takes a typical teacher 25 minutes to complete and review. Two hours is the ceiling for a teacher who reads carefully, watches all embedded clips, and works the activity packet. A teacher who skims will finish in 90 minutes but will not pass the certification quiz at the 80% threshold. The activities and quiz items are calibrated so that the depth defends the time claim.

Asynchronous structure

Each module is self-contained and works in any order — but the recommended sequence below is designed so a teacher can stop after any module and still walk away with a usable classroom move:

#	Module	Walkaway move
01	What Cash to Company Is	The 30-second program elevator pitch
02	The 4 Pedagogy Moves	A lesson-prep checklist with four boxes
03	The Cash Voice	A laminated card of "Cash never says"
04	Common Misconceptions	A 3-step misconception-correction script
05	Differentiation in Practice	A grade-band-specific scaffold menu

CASH CERTIFIED TEACHER PD

#	Module	Walkaway move
06	Capstone Defense Calibration	A norming protocol for shared scoring

A teacher running the PD as a 2-hour block can take a 5-minute break after Module 03 (the natural midpoint). A teacher running it across a week can do one module per day in 20-minute sittings. A school running it as a cohort can pair Modules 01–03 in Week 1 and Modules 04–06 in Week 2, with the quiz the following Monday.

Activity packet integration

The Activity Packet (`Activity_Packet.md`) holds twelve hands-on activities — voice-band-spotting drills, misconception-correction role-plays, sensitivity-scenario sorts, capstone calibration practice. Each module names the two activities a teacher should do alongside that module's reading. Activities are necessary, not optional; the certification quiz tests behaviors the activities rehearse.

Certificate requirements

To earn the Cash Certified Teacher badge:

1. Complete all six modules (verified by passing the in-module knowledge checks).
2. Complete at least 8 of the 12 activities in the Activity Packet (self-attested with brief written reflection).
3. Score 80% or higher (20 of 25) on the Certification Quiz.
4. Sign the Cash Sensitivity Pledge (one paragraph; published in Module 06).

The certificate is renewable annually. Each renewal requires a 20-minute change-log read and a 5-question refresh quiz at the start of the academic year.

Accessibility notes (a11y)

The PD complies with WCAG 2.1 AA and matches the program's broader accessibility commitment. Specifically:

- Every embedded video has captions (already on by default), a downloadable transcript, and an audio-described version where image-on-screen carries instructional weight.
- Every PDF and slide deck is screen-reader navigable: all images include alt text, all tables include header rows, all reading order is logical, and color is never the only carrier of meaning.
- Color contrast meets 4.5:1 for body text and 3:1 for non-text UI. Two color combinations (gold on navy, navy on cream) are used consistently across surfaces.
- The certification quiz can be completed by keyboard alone. Time limits are not enforced; a teacher with a processing accommodation may take as long as needed.

CASH CERTIFIED TEACHER PD

- The Activity Packet activities have low-tech alternatives — every video activity has a transcript-only equivalent; every group activity has a solo-reflection equivalent.
- The certificate and badge artwork ship as both raster (PNG) and vector (SVG) for scaling. The certificate ships in a screen-readable PDF and a print-friendly version.

Program-positioning language (locked)

The PD describes itself as a "Cash Certified Teacher PD — 2 hr async, certificate-bearing." It does not describe itself with cost-status language. The PD's value is its rigor, not its price. (See `MASTER_BRAND_VOICE_GUIDE.md` §3a for the locked rule and exceptions.) Marketing surfaces that mention the PD use the same phrasing.

What gets built next

This PD is v1.0. Planned extensions: an additional 30-minute "Family Visit Day Hosting" module for teachers running the K-2 or Grade 5 showcases, a 30-minute "Real Venture Readiness" module for high-school teachers running Grade 11 or Grade 12, and a Spanish-language PD parallel (`/_ES/teacher_PD/`) on the same architecture.

A teacher who completes the PD with care will walk into Day 1 of a Cash to Company year knowing what to ignore, what to hold tight to, what to say when a kid asks a hard question, and how to grade the work in the same voice the program was written in. That is the whole point of the certificate.

One promise.

No promise of wealth. No probing of family finances. One question, asked patiently for thirteen years - which people, and how do you know?

Cash to Company is built so a curriculum coordinator, a foundation officer, a parent, or a teacher can pick up any one of these strategic references and meet the program at full strength on the first page.

No promise of wealth. No probing of family finances. No partisan content. One question, asked patiently for thirteen years: which people, and how do you know?
