PRODUCTION NOTES — "WAIT FOR IT"

> "You picked this idea. How do you know somebody actually wants it?"
> - CASH, GRADE 3

Episode: ML EP11 Runtime: 2:50 Pipeline: Midjourney (plates) ›› ElevenLabs (voice) ›› Hedra Character-3 (lipsync) ›› Kling Multi-Shot web (motion) ›› Suno (music) ›› ffmpeg (assemble) Brand band: K-2 / 3-5 hybrid (CashQuest Kids ages 6–10) Brand stamp: "Tool up."

1. HOOK STRATEGY

Cold open beat (first 3 seconds): A single cookie on a plate. A small kid stares at it. A countdown timer ticks: 0:10. SFX: tick-tick-tick. Cash drops into frame and taps the timer.

Why this hook works for ages 6–10: The "marshmallow test" framing is famous, kid-relatable, and immediately concrete. Two cookies in ten minutes is a stake the audience can feel before any explanation. Buck's "longest day in human history" payoff is the shareable moment.

First Cash line by second 4: "Notice with me. One cookie now. Or two cookies in ten minutes." — sets the binary choice in 12 words.

2. B-ROLL SUGGESTIONS

BEAT	B-ROLL PLATE
0:00–0:04	Cookie + plate + timer ticking. Cash drops in.
0:05–0:15	"1 cookie" left, "2 cookies" right, clock between. Title card: WAIT FOR IT.
0:16–0:35	Penny enters with three jars. Six-square calendar slides on. Coins land one per square. Yellow paint set lands.
0:36–0:55	Buck enters. Two-day chart: sad face → proud face.
0:56–1:20	NOW vs. LATER chart. PATIENCE glows in the middle.
1:21–1:35	Cookie example replays. Timer hits 0:00. Two cookies appear.
1:36–1:55	"Patience is not punishment" beat. Heart icon next to PATIENCE.
1:56–2:25	Three boxes: SMALL NOW $1, MEDIUM SOON $4 in 2 weeks, BIG LATER $10 in a month. Penny picks medium, Buck picks small.
2:26–2:45	Seven-day plan. Seven boxes fill in with one pretend coin each. Slime kit appears.
2:46–2:50	CTA poster + Cash wave + cookie multiplies.

3. MUSIC VIBE (SUNO)

Prompt brief: Patient, ticking, slightly suspenseful kids' track that resolves into warm payoff. Light pizzicato strings + woodblock tick + soft kick. Major-leaning. 88 BPM. No vocals. The music swells gently when "two cookies appear" at 1:30. No music sting on the "patience" reveal — silence + heart icon carry that beat.

Suno tags: `pizzicato`, `kids`, `playful`, `patient`, `ukulele`, `light percussion`, `88bpm`, `instrumental`, `no vocals`, `picturebook score`.

Mix notes: Tick-tick-tick SFX rides the music for first 8 seconds, then drops out. Music ducks to –30 LUFS during Buck's "longest day in human history" line — Buck's delivery is the joke; do not bury it under score.

4. END-CARD CTA

On-screen text: "Pick one small thing to wait one week for. Draw seven boxes. Cross off one a day. Tell a grown-up at the end."

Tagline lockup: CashQuest Kids logo + "Tool up." underneath. Soft chime + tiny "ding" (the wait-finish bell). 1 second.

Parent/teacher prompt (caption + community tab): "This week: ask your kid what they're waiting one week for. Then ask again on day 4. The midpoint is where waits get hard."

5. SHORTS CUT POINTS (9-SECOND VERTICAL)

TIME	BEAT	CAPTION
0:00	Cookie + timer	"Wait for it."
0:02	6-square calendar fills with coins, paint set lands	"Penny waited 6 weeks."
0:04	Buck's two-day chart, sad → proud	"Day one was the longest day in human history."
0:07	NOW vs. LATER chart, PATIENCE glows	"Patience is a money superpower."
0:08	End card	"PICK YOUR WAIT." + logo + Tool up.

Vertical crop spec: 1080×1920. Buck's "longest day in human history" line is the viral candidate — caption it big, hold the freeze frame on Buck's face for 0.5 sec.

6. MIDJOURNEY PLATE PROMPTS

> CASH SAYS
> Cref locks: Cash, Penny, Buck masters. Append `--ar 16:9 --style raw --stylize 250 --v 6.1`.

cu01 — Cookie + timer cold open "A children's-book illustration of a single warm chocolate-chip cookie on a small white plate on a wooden kitchen table, a small countdown timer next to it showing 0:10 in big chunky digital numbers, soft afternoon light from a window, paper-cutout aesthetic, hand-drawn ink lines, muted palette of warm yellow, soft cream, and warm grey, picturebook style. --ar 16:9 --v 6.1" cu02 — One vs. two cookies + clock "A children's-book illustration of a split scene: left side one cookie on a plate with the chunky text '1 NOW', right side two cookies on a plate with the chunky text '2 LATER', a small round clock with friendly hands between them, paper-cutout, picturebook style, muted warm palette. --ar 16:9 --v 6.1" cu03 — Penny's six-week calendar + paint set "A picturebook illustration of a friendly kid character named Penny holding three small mason jars labeled SAVE, SPEND, SHARE, next to a six-square hand-drawn calendar with one yellow coin in each square, a small bright yellow watercolor paint set on the right with the price tag $12, paper-cutout aesthetic, hand-drawn ink lines. --cref [Penny plate] --cw 80 --ar 16:9 --v 6.1" cu04 — Buck's two-day chart "A picturebook illustration of a friendly energetic kid character named Buck holding a small notebook with a two-day chart, day one showing a hand-drawn sad face, day two showing a hand-drawn proud smiley face, a $7 SLIME KIT label on the side, paper-cutout style, muted palette. --cref [Buck plate] --cw 80 --ar 16:9 --v 6.1"

cu06 — Three-tier choice "A picturebook illustration of three side-by-side boxes labeled SMALL NOW, MEDIUM SOON, BIG LATER, each with a tiny price ($1, $4, $10) and a small icon (one sticker, a sticker pack, a sticker book), paper-cutout aesthetic, hand-drawn ink lines, muted warm palette. --ar 16:9 --v 6.1" cu07 — Seven-box one-week plan "A picturebook illustration of a horizontal row of seven small hand-drawn boxes numbered 1 through 7, one yellow coin landing in each box in sequence, a small slime kit on the right with the price $7, the title 'MY ONE-WEEK WAIT' in chunky hand-drawn letters above, paper-cutout style, muted warm palette. --ar 16:9 --v 6.1"

7. ELEVENLABS VOICE IDS

CHARACTER	VOICE	ELEVENLABS ID	SETTINGS
Cash	Bill	`pqHfZKP75CvOlQylNhV4`	model `eleven_multilingual_v2`, stability 0.55, similarity 0.85, style 0.30, speaker_boost on
Penny	(kid voice)	`PENNY_VOICE` (locked from EP03/EP05; reuse same render settings)	stability 0.50, similarity 0.80, style 0.40
Buck	(kid voice — energetic)	`BUCK_VOICE` (locked from EP04/EP06)	stability 0.45, similarity 0.80, style 0.55 (slightly more expressive — this episode hosts the joke beat)

Render order: Cash → Penny → Buck. Buck's line "It was hard. The first day was the longest day in human history." — request 3 takes, pick the dryest delivery. The over-the-top take kills the joke.

8. HEDRA CHARACTER-3 LIPSYNC TARGETS

Model: `d1dd37a3-e39a-4854-a298-6510289f9cf2`.

- Cash: master plate + Cash WAV → vertical + horizontal renders.
- Penny: Penny master plate + Penny WAV → vertical + horizontal.
- Buck: Buck master plate + Buck WAV → vertical + horizontal. Hold the freeze on Buck's face for 0.5 sec on the "longest day" line for the Shorts cut.

QA gate: Re-render any take where Buck's lipsync drifts more than 1 frame on the punchline.

9. KLING MOTION CLIP PLAN (CU01–CU07)

CLIP	SOURCE PLATE	MOTION BRIEF	LENGTH
cu01	Cookie + timer	"Timer digits tick from 0:10 down to 0:09; cookie shimmers slightly; Cash drops into frame from above."	5 sec
cu02	1 vs. 2 cookies + clock	"Clock hands move; cookies on each side gently shift weight, like a soft scale."	4 sec
cu03	Penny's calendar	"Six coins land in six squares one-per-second; paint set fades in at end."	7 sec
cu04	Buck's chart	"Sad face crossfades to proud face; speech bubble pops with 'longest day in human history.'"	5 sec
cu05	NOW/LATER + PATIENCE	"Arrow strokes from NOW to LATER; PATIENCE letters bloom with soft glow; heart icon pops."	5 sec
cu06	Three-tier choice	"Penny's hand reaches and taps MEDIUM box (highlights); Buck's hand taps SMALL (highlights)."	6 sec
cu07	Seven-box one-week plan	"Coins land in boxes 1 through 7 one-per-second; slime kit pops at end."	8 sec

Total motion: ~40 seconds of Kling. Rest covered by static + Hedra lipsync.

10. FFMPEG STITCH BEAT SHEET

0:00–0:05   cu01 (cookie + timer cold open + Cash drop)
0:05–0:15   cu02 (one vs. two + clock) — Cash voice intro
0:15–0:38   cu03 (Penny + calendar + paint set) — Penny voice
0:38–0:55   cu04 (Buck + two-day chart) — Buck voice (the joke)
0:55–1:25   cu05 (NOW/LATER + PATIENCE) — Cash voice middle
1:25–1:35   static cookie replay → 2 cookies appear
1:35–1:58   static + Cash voice (patience is not punishment)
1:58–2:20   cu06 (three-tier choice) — Penny + Buck pick
2:20–2:45   cu07 (seven-box plan) — Cash voice CTA setup

2:45–2:50   CTA poster + Cash wave + cookie-multiply

11. SENSITIVITY GATES

- [ ] No real brand names (no candy, no toy, no app brands). Generic "slime kit," "paint set."
- [ ] No food framed as "junk" or "good." Cookie is neutral, paint set/slime kit are neutral.
- [ ] All amounts pretend ($1, $4, $7, $10, $12). No real-money probing.
- [ ] No "anyone can be rich" framing. Patience is framed as "your call," not a path to wealth.
- [ ] No "free" framing about CashQuest Kids.
- [ ] No banned phrases.
- [ ] Runtime ≤ 3:00.
