Business ideas come from skills, hobbies, and needs

What I can do, what I love, and what I notice - that's where ideas live.

"Your Money Story" (Cash + Penny + Buck + Giver + Kenji)

"You picked this idea. How do you know somebody actually wants it?"

- CASH, GRADE 3

Tract: Money Smarts (ML) Episode: EP12 of 12 — Capstone Audience: Ages 6–10 (CashQuest Kids primary band) Runtime target: 3:00 (390–420 spoken words) Voice band: K-2 / 3-5 hybrid — short sentences, concrete, never moralizing Strand mapping: all 8 — year capstone (BAVC, MFL, OSO, ESL, LRCI, CBM, LTO, PSIG) Cash voice: Bill — ElevenLabs `pqHfZKP75CvOlQylNhV4`

[VISUAL: A blank notebook page sits on a table. A pencil rolls onto the page and stops. Cash drops into frame, lands gently next to the pencil.]

[SFX: Soft pencil-roll. Warm chime.]

CASH: Notice with me. One blank page.

[VISUAL: Cash tilts the small notebook toward the camera. Title appears: "YOUR MONEY STORY."]

CASH: This year, you learned a lot. Today, you write it down.

[VISUAL: A montage flashes — eleven tiny icons across the screen, one per past episode: a coin, a pickaxe, a piggy bank, a need/want sign, three jars, a pause button, a heart, a planner, a price tag, a tiny bank, a calendar with seven boxes.]

CASH: Eleven moves. All yours now.

[VISUAL: Penny pops in from the left, holding her three jars.]

PENNY: Save first. Spend smart. Share some.

[VISUAL: Buck slides in from the right.]

BUCK: Pause before you buy. Need or want?

[VISUAL: Giver pops up holding a small bag with a heart on it.]

GIVER: Sharing is a skill. Even a little counts.

[VISUAL: Kenji walks in with the planner.]

KENJI: Write. Date. Do.

[VISUAL: All four kids stand around the blank notebook. Cash points at the page.]

CASH: That is the story so far. Now: you.

[VISUAL: A simple ONE-PAGE plan template appears, big and friendly. Five short prompts: 1) MY MONEY GOAL 2) HOW I'LL EARN 3) WHERE IT LIVES 4) WHAT I'LL WAIT FOR 5) WHO I'LL SHARE WITH]

CASH: Five lines. One page. Your money plan.

[VISUAL: Spotlight on prompt 1. A pretend kid named Mia writes "PAINT SET — $12" in big crayon.]

CASH: One. Your goal. Pretend prices only.

[VISUAL: PRETEND label glows on screen.]

[VISUAL: Spotlight on prompt 2.]

CASH: Two. How will you earn? Chores. Helping. A small job a grown-up says yes to.

[VISUAL: Mia writes "FEED THE DOG — $1 a day."]

[VISUAL: Spotlight on prompt 3.]

CASH: Three. Where it lives. Jar. Piggy bank. Real bank with a grown-up.

[VISUAL: Mia draws a jar with "SAVE" on it.]

[VISUAL: Spotlight on prompt 4.]

CASH: Four. What you will wait for. The wait makes the goal real.

[VISUAL: Mia writes "12 DAYS."]

[VISUAL: Spotlight on prompt 5.]

CASH: Five. Who you will share with. Even a small share counts.

[VISUAL: Mia writes "MY LITTLE BROTHER."]

[VISUAL: All five lines fill in. The plan is done.]

CASH: Five answers. One page. Done.

[VISUAL: Cash holds up the plan, then turns to the camera.]

CASH: A money story is not about being rich. It is about being clear.

[VISUAL: The four friends nod. Each holds up their own one-page plan, slightly different.]

CASH: Penny's goal is paints. Buck's goal is slime. Giver's goal is a class gift. Kenji's goal is books.

KENJI: Different stories. Same five lines.

CASH: Yes.

[VISUAL: Cash gestures at the camera, gentle.]

CASH: You will be wrong sometimes. Plans change. That is okay.

[VISUAL: A tiny eraser nudges one line on Mia's plan. The line gets rewritten.]

CASH: Cross it out. Try again. A little less wrong, every week.

[VISUAL: A poster appears: "MY MONEY STORY — 5 lines. 1 page. Mine."]

CTA: CASH: Try this today. Get one piece of paper. Write the five lines. Fill them in with pretend numbers. Show a grown-up. Three. Two. One. Go.

[VISUAL: All four friends wave. Cash waves last, both hands.]

CASH: Tool up, friend. See you next quest.

[VISUAL: The eleven episode icons line up across the bottom. The new one — a one-page plan — slides in as number twelve. Fade.]

[SFX: Soft warm chord. A long, gentle bell.]

End-of-script Brand Stamp

[VISUAL: CashQuest Kids logo. Tagline below: "Tool up." Cash waves with both hands. Below the tagline, a small line appears: "Money Smarts — 12 of 12. Quest unlocked."] Soft chime. 1.5 seconds.

Brand-voice self-check

- No banned phrases ("amazing," "boss up," "easy money," "everyone can be rich," "crush it," "manifest," "be your own boss," etc.) — pass.
- No family-money probing — `PRETEND` label, "pretend prices only," "real bank with a grown-up" — pass.
- Cash never moralizes — frames the year as "be clear, not rich" — pass.
- Concrete real-life example (Mia's $12 paint set, dog-feeding $1/day, 12-day wait, share with brother) — pass.

- Quotable Cash line: "A money story is not about being rich. It is about being clear." — pass. (This is the capstone shareable.)
- Cash on screen by second 5 — yes (drops in at 0:02, named at 0:04) — pass.
- Concrete kid-takeaway CTA — yes (write five lines on one page, show a grown-up) — pass.
- 9-second Shorts cut — included — pass.
- Capstone callbacks — Penny (jars), Buck (pause), Giver (sharing), Kenji (planner) all return; eleven-icon recap; new icon for the plan — pass.
- Educational, not advisory — pass.
